

EASTERN STAR FAIR TO FEATURE JAZZ DANCING

Special dance numbers by Phil People's jazz orchestra will be one of the features of the fair being held at Sixteenth and Lamont streets by the various chapters of the Eastern Star. Besides dancing, the popular attractions include a score of novelty games, a crayon camp, refreshment booths and Venetian swings for the children. The carnival which is being held for the benefit of the Eastern Star Home, and the nine chapters that are participating will come to a close tomorrow night. The attendance thus far has gratified the officials in charge and assured the success of the affair.

MESSAGES of sympathy have been pouring in at the White House since the announcement that Mrs. Harding is ill, and under the care of Dr. Sawyer, the President's physician. The duties which fall to the lot of the Mistress of the White House are arduous in the extreme, and Mrs. Harding has never spared herself in their fulfillment. Moreover, she has given generously of her time and strength to her old friends, and sorrow in her illness is widespread.

The trouble is described as the recurrence of an illness to which she has been subject, aggravated by a cold.

THE British Ambassador, Sir Auckland Geddes, will arrive here tomorrow from Dark Harbor, Me., where he has been resting since his rather strenuous six weeks' visit in England. Lady Geddes and their children do not expect to return to Washington until October 1 and the ambassador hopes that he may be able to rejoin them there for a further holiday.

turned from Deer Park, Md., where she spent the greater part of the summer. Mrs. Merchant M. Mahony, wife of the representative of Canadian external affairs, British embassy, is also home, having returned yesterday, accompanied by her small daughter, Anna Kathleen Mahony. They have been at their summer home on Stanley Island, Lake St. Francis, Canada, for the last three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Ferris, of the embassy staff, have likewise reached town after being away all summer, and are at their home at 1810 Connecticut avenue. Hugh V. Tennant, attaché of the embassy and secretary to the ambassador, has returned after spending several months in England; and Lady Geddes' social secretary, Mrs. I. Thomas Hagner, who, with her young daughter, Miss Caroline Hagner, spent the summer at Dark Harbor, is again at her home in N street.

Numerous changes in the personnel of the staff are in prospect this autumn, and the embassy building is now in process of renovation.

The elder son, Herbert C. Hoover, Jr., who is a student at Leland Stanford University will come from California early in the autumn for a visit with his parents before returning to college.

The Secretary of Labor, Mr. Davis who is spending the fortnight with Mrs. Davis at their home in Moorehead, Ill., will return to Washington Monday. Mrs. Davis will remain there until late in the autumn.

The new Minister of Venezuela, Pedro M. Arcaya, will arrive in Washington Monday to assume his new duties. Senor Arcaya is at present in New York. He will succeed Senor Dominici, who resigned two months ago.

The charge d'affaires of the Polish legation, Mr. Kwapiszewski, entertained a company of gentlemen at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham.

Walter F. Chappell, who will be married on September 18 to Miss Sidney Webb, daughter of Mrs. John Sidney Webb, arrived in Washington yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., who are traveling abroad, arrived in Vienna yesterday on their way to Venice. Mr. Grant visited the house where his brother, the late Gen. Frederick Dent Grant, lived when he was minister to Austria.

Mrs. William Nelson Taft, of Philadelphia, will arrive in Washington on Sunday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene D. Carusi, while her husband is in Dayton on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Saulsbury, who have been abroad for some time, have sailed for home on board the Adriatic, and will land in New York on Sunday.

Herbert Hengstler, chief of the Consular Service, had guests dining with him last evening at the Washington Country Club.

Mrs. George Oakley Totten, Jr., who was visiting near Wilmington, Del., has returned to Washington. Maj. Totten will join her here about September 24 after spending six months in Europe.

Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson returned Tuesday from Narragansett Pier where he spent the week-end with Mrs. Grayson and their family. Mrs. Grayson and the children will return to Washington the first of October.

The director general of the Pan-American Union, Dr. L. S. Rowe, has returned to Washington from Wilmington, Mass., where he conducted a round table conference on Latin America at the Institute of Politics.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell Sweeney and John F. Sweeney, who have been spending the summer abroad, are expected back in New York on Sunday, having sailed from Liverpool on board the Adriatic.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy D. Goff En Route From Europe.

The Assistant to the Attorney General and Mrs. Guy D. Goff and their daughter, Miss Louise Goff, sailed yesterday from Southampton aboard the Homeric for New York. Mr. and Mrs. Goff sailed the middle of the summer and joined their
